

Instructions for Completing the Student Dormitory Application - Single Students

This application form is intended for single students studying at the Technion in undergraduate degree programs, in architecture in the professional track, and in medicine, who are enrolled in at least 10 academic credits per semester. Discontinuation of one's studies, a leave of absence, or completion of one's studies immediately revokes eligibility to live in the dormitories. Read the instructions carefully before completing the application form – the form must be submitted along with all required documents; therefore, all relevant documents should be prepared in advance, in PDF format only. If you are prevented from continuing to fill out the application due to missing a certain document, you will need to start over. A representative sample of a number of applications will be selected to examine the reliability of the data. In case the request is not sent Open the documents in Word and re-save as a PDF file with a new name, then submit the application with the documents under the new name. For example, do not upload documents that contain the word document in their name.

Special Programs – applicable only for the undergraduate degree housing period

Students who are part of the following programs – Technion Excellence / Psagot / Brakim / Silon / Alonim / Avivim / Gvishim / Heznek – are automatically eligible for dormitory housing.
